How much room do I have?

That would depend on how many individual walls you decide to purchase. There is an additional 10% OFF discount for the combining of multiple walls to increase wall area to exhibitor

How many artworks can I fit?

Allow for the size of your frame and for enough white space between the artwork. If the wall is too crowded, your artwork will not stand out. We cannot display more art than can fit on the wall.

The rules and regulations state a quality museum style hanging of art. There is no storage on site for additional artwork, however we can store more art in my warehouse and our delivery van going to the show daily.

Will I need a pass to get in?

Blink Group Projects will have for you at the show an Artist Name Badge and Full VIP Passes & Guest passes to the show. We can email you additional complimentary passes to access the exhibit during show hours.

Can I pick up my unsold work in person?

Yes, you can deliver art to show. Prior arrangements must be made with us.

Can I bring my work in person?

Yes, you can deliver art to show. Prior arrangements must be made with us.

Can art be removed immediately upon a sale?

Yes, Elizabeth Reyes or Aldeide Delgado have forms to fill out that allows for a purchaser to leave the premises with the art. We will handle all this for you.

Can artist hang around the last day?

Absolutely NOT Last day is last minute sales. We want no artist in the booth except clients. Our clients need our undivided attention when closing time hits Sunday at 6pm then artist can all come in to the booth.

Can I replace sold work?

If a piece of artwork is sold, another one can be brought in to replace it. It will have to make sure it fits the empty space. We cannot rearrange the original display. Artwork has to be delivered through loading area and requires inventory/insurance forms to be filled out. We will do that for you and prior arrangements must be made with us.

Can I help at the booth?

As an exhibiting artist you will have the distinct and fortunate ability to let the public know firsthand about your work, your techniques, and your art career. We do not encourage that artists hang out at booth for long periods. Please let us do our job of representing you. It is nice to meet the artists, however, in our experience at these high-end art shows buyers are more comfortable and likely to buy from the gallery representative.

Can I send invitations?

Definitely! Put the word out that you are showing with Blink Group Projects at booth #TBD
